Shri Manoj Paranjpe, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that earlier, a departmental enquiry was proceeded against the Petitioner and ultimately vide order dated 10/07/2001 (Annexure P-2), the Joint Director Establishment (D & A) II, Railway Board, Delhi, under the decision of the President, dropped the Disciplinary Proceedings pending against the petitioner and exonerated the petitioner from all the charges levelled against him. Learned counsel further submits that after this order all the service benefits including the monitory benefits were given to the petitioner but the petitioner was not given interest on the monitory benefits, which he claimed by filing as many as 4 representations filed as Annexures P-3, P-4, P-5 and P-6.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that for the present, this petition may be disposed of with a liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh representation before the competent authority and the competent authority may be directed to dispose of his representation within the stipulated period granted by this Court.

Considering the facts and circumstances particulary the circumstance that 4 earlier representations vide Annexures P-3 to P-6 are pending before the competent authority, I deem it proper to issue a direction in favour of the petitioner to file a fresh
